Dear Mr Barrett

Shrieval Elections 2019

I write to give you formal notice that Erica Frances Margaret Story (Past Master Tax Adviser, Past Master Plumber and current chairman Lady Masters Association) of 20 Brandon Mews, Barbican EC2Y 8BE intends to submit her candidacy for the post of non-aldermanic sheriff by 30 April 2019. (In case it is necessary her mother company is the City Solicitors and she is also on the court of the Tin Plate Workers alias Wire Workers.)

She can be contacted on 07949 759078 and erica@ericastary.london. Her website is www.ericastary.london. Please confirm that you will be circulating this information to all livery clerks with a request that they recirculate to their livery.

Yours sincerely

G. C Sofaer

Erica Stary whose address is above

Chris Hayward

Candidate for Non-Aldermanic
Sheriff 2019/20

Passionate. Energetic. Experienced Leader.

To The Livery Companies of the City of London

1 February 2019

Dear Liveryman,

It takes quite something to get a BEAR out of hibernation, but when Chris asked me to chair his election campaign, it was my honour and privilege to accept. It is not often that such an excellent candidate, ticking all the boxes, puts their hat in the ring.

The Role of Sheriff has become increasingly important over recent years. Long past are the days when the Shire Reeves, one of the oldest appointments of the Monarch, collected the King's taxes and administered the King's justice. Nowadays both Sheriffs not only support the Lord Mayor and look after the Old Bailey, but are also expected to be credible ambassadors in their own right. They do the heavy lifting, promoting the Global City here and abroad, especially when the emphasis will be on our place in a new world order, Post-Brexit, often standing in for the Lord Mayor on their own.

This requires a range of skills and experience that are now common to both Aldermanic and non-Aldermanic Sheriffs.

In essence they fall into five categories, all of which Chris has in spades:

1. A strong business CV – being at the top of one's career.
2. Excellent first hand knowledge of the financial and business City.
3. The gravitas to be an ambassador for the City.
4. Strong commitment to the Livery and respect of Corporation members and officers.
5. Support from their family home team.

How lucky are we to be in a position to elect a candidate such as Chris, who has the right balance of empathy, understanding, political nous and knowledge to enable Mansion House, Old Bailey, Corporation, Livery and Stake Holders to combine as ONE TEAM, in these challenging times.

And what momentum has built up since Common Hall, which can only be attributed to the strength of his candidature. Over 750 registered supporters representing all 110 Livery Companies, including at the last count 38 Masters, 233 Past Masters and 17 former Sheriffs including 6 former Lord Mayors!

And as an added bonus, Chris has an excellent working relationship with the preferred Aldermanic Shrieval candidate, Michael Mainelli, the current Lord Mayor Peter Estlin and the 'Senior Alderman Below the Chair' William Russell. What a combined team they would make!

May I encourage you to visit Chris's website and sign up to support him www.chrishayward.city and to vote for Chris and Alderman Michael Mainelli on Monday June 24th.

With all best wishes.
