

Dear Liveryman

This is addressed to any Liveryman with Welsh connections.

The purpose of this letter is to draw your attention to the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales. Like your own Company it is principally a charitable organisation, supporting the Arts, Science and Technology in the Principality with a variety of awards and sponsorship, but also aims to foster goodwill and fellowship amongst its members. The charitable work is mainly in the field of education (schools, universities and apprentices) but the Company also has affiliations with all 3 Services. You will find more information on the Company at our website: www.liverycompanywales.cymru

Many (but by no means all) of our members are, like you, members of London Liveries but were not initially aware that the ethos of the livery also existed in Wales. Realising this to be the case they have become Liverymen of the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales as well. These include a number of Past Masters of London Companies as well as a past Lord Mayor, Sir David Lewis.

Your Clerk has kindly agreed to circulate this short note on behalf of the Company in order to bring our existence to your attention.

If you would like to know more about the Company then do, please, contact me. Some of our members live in London and it is possible that arrangements could be made for you to meet in person to see what might be involved in becoming a Liveryman of the Company, currently we have an events programme with meetings on a regular basis as detailed on our website. Some of our events are in London, for example we held this year's Awards Dinner and Lecture at the Athenaeum.

If your Company is considering a visit to Wales, please do not hesitate to contact me if you would like our assistance. I look forward to meeting some of you in the future.

Yours sincerely

Christopher Dale
